

243750

Provenience: Colombia (northwest)

So. Am.
AndeanMus.
inst

Field No.

People or Culture: Choco Indians

Object: Drum

P. Num 3

Description: Balsa wood with head of cowhide held by strings passing around wedged band of twisted vine. Supposed to have come from Darien Indians, i.e., Cuna, but is of Choco type and drums not made by Cuna in recent times. This drum quite new. Probably traded from Choco across border to Cuna. (Sketch on reverse of card.)

Neg. No.

Dimensions: Ht. 47.5, Diam. of head 17.5
(in cm.)

Acc.

2448

Collection: Presented by Robert M. Ransom,
9 August 1950. Collected by same about 1945 in Panamá.

