

AGENT

FIELD MUSEUM OF NATURAL HISTORY—ETHNOLOGY

21-2

221704

Field No.

Provenience:Nigeria: Northern Region, possibly Sardauna or Adamawa provinces.People or Culture:

undetermined

Object: woman's apronMaterial: glass beads, cowry-shells, cotton string.Description: rectangular piece of beadwork with continuous pattern of lozenges--in dark blue and light blue edged with white, yellow and red beads--running on the long axis; one end fringed with cowries side-by-side; the other end fringed with 5 strings of large white beads, prob. of African manufacture.

Neg. No.

38

Dimensions: length -38.2cm. width-16.0cm.
(in cm.)

Acc.

3084

Collection: Received from Mr. Allen Bassing
October 27, 1969.

