

A 269144.	ENT FIELD MUSEUM OF NATURAL HISTORY—ETHNOLOGY 24-17
Field No.	Provenience: Africa, Zambia, possibly LoTsi People or Culture: Africans Object: BOWL Material: Wood Description: Carved wood bowl, circular inside with pouring spout on one side opposite crescent-shaped handle. Raised, diamond pattern incising near rim bordering spout and handle. Flat base. Graduated rings form outer body. (Crack in spout when received.) a typical design, possibly around LoTsi (NoTsi), vassals of LoTsi, Zambia. Dr. Leon Siroto 6/28/84
Neg. No.	Dimensions: Max.Diam: 17.0; Ht. 6.2; W: 12.0 cm. (in cm.)
Acc. 3475	Collection: Gift of Chicago Historical Society, 9/18/80.