

ENT

A

194174

A+B

Field No.

Neg. No.

594.7A

594.11A

FIELD MUSEUM OF NATURAL HISTORY—ARCHAEOLOGY

22-20

Provenience: West Africa, Nigeria

Card #1

People or Culture: Yoruba, contemporaryObject: serving bowl with lidMaterial: clay

Description: A: bowl of traditional design with constricted neck and flaring rim. Rim is decorated with concentric circles around circumference. Shoulders has concentric circles giving terraced effect around circumference. Central terrace is decorated with 7 figures of parallel incised vertical lines, arranged with shortest line on left and tallest on right, and a diagonal line connecting first three across the top. Bottom of bowl has two deeply incised lines around circumference. Smooth lines radiate

Dimensions:

(in cm.) A: diameter 23, ht 10.4; B 19.9 x 4.1

OVER

S
- Acc.

3144

Collection: Bought by Maude Wahlman, February 1971
Collected by Wahlman, S.W. Nigeria, 1970 from center bottom, with roughened areas between.

B: lid, shaped like a flattened dome. Interior very rough in texture. decorated by smoothed lines. Large fire cloud on exterior, which is smooth textured and has a single line incised around circumference.

ENT
A

FIELD MUSEUM OF NATURAL HISTORY—ETHNOLOGY 22-20

194174

Provenience: Nigeria, Ishan

Field No.

People or Culture: Yoruba

Card #2

48

Object: Pot (Ishasun) with lid.

Material: Clay

Description: A round bottomed cooking pot. Has been basted a dark reddish brown color by application of an Ira bark infusion while the pot is still hot from firing. Incised lines under a flared rim.

Neg. No.

594.7a

594.11A

Dimensions: 9 1/2 cm h, 13 1/2 cm w
(in cm.)

Acc. 3144

Collection: Purchased from Mrs. Maude Wahlman
February 17, 1971

