

ENT

FIELD MUSEUM OF NATURAL HISTORY—ETHNOLOGY 24-23

222225

Provenience: Kenya Near Lodwar

Field No.

People or Culture: Turkana

T41

Object: Animal trapMaterial: Wood, palm leaf midribs, bark

Description: Two circles of wood (usually henna shrub) are bound together with bark, holding between them spikes of duom palm midrib pointed toward the center. Placed over a hole on a game path to catch the foot of an animal. A Cow-hide thong (absent) ties trap to a tree.

Neg. No.

9✓
Dimensions: Diam. 25.5 Thickness 2.5 cm
(in cm.)

Acc.

3260

Collection: Field Museum of Natural History Purchase 1974
Collected by Mrs. Ann Prewitt 1973

