

A

FIELD COLUMBIAN MUSEUM.

34-14

34627

ENT Philippine Islands
Country

Locality Mindanao Isd., Lake Lanao

People Moro Stock.

Name Sarong, a skirt worn by either sex, being 70 cm. of cotton cloth 152 cm. wide stitched together. The garment shows banded in red, orange, yellow, green, and purple.

1

Collection R. F. Cummings

Dr. A. B. Jenks, Coll

Notes

Acc. 989

Price

copied for PRL

The women weave cloth of good quality which they make into sarongs- skirts and other articles of clothing. The work is executed upon efficient though primitive hand looms, the diversity of patterns being obtained by the manipulation of many colored threads.