

A

FIELD COLUMBIAN MUSEUM.

34-14

34628

Country

Locality

People

Stock.

Name

Philippine Islands
 Mindanao Sulu, Lake Lanao
 Negro
 Sarung, a skirt worn by either sex, being 2.4 cm. of cotton cloth
 152 cm wide stitched together.
 The garment shows banded in red,
 orange, yellow, green, and purple.

over.

Collection

Notes

Acc.

989

Price

Copied for PRL

The women weave cloth of good quality which they make into sarongs- skirts- and other articles of clothing. The work is executéd upon efficient though primitive hand looms, the diversity of patterns being obtained by the manipulation of many colored threads.