

34629

Country

Locality

People

Stock.

Name

Philippine Islands
Mindanao Island, Lake Lanao.
Moro Sarong, a skirt worn by either sex, being 210 cm of cotton cloth 181 cm. wide, stitched together.
The garment shows banded in red, orange, yellow, green, and purple. over.

3

Collection

Notes

Acc.

Price

copied for PRL

The women weave cloth of good quality which they make into sarongs- skirts and other articles of clothing. The work is executed upon efficient though primitive hand looms, the diversity of patterns being obtained by the manipulation of many colored threads.