

ENT
ACHICAGO NATURAL HISTORY MUSEUM—ETHNOLOGY 21-14

221564.

A-B

Field No.

Provenience: Nigeria: Bornu

People or Culture: Kanuri

Object: thorn-remover and sheath

Material: iron, leather

Description: (1)^A short shank with lyrate forceps at one end and ovate blade at the other; the blade stepped in above the point. (2)^B red leather sheath capped by rolled strip at one end and running into a loop at the other, closed above the sheath by a free strip running through slits: this strip closes by a rolled strip passing as toggle through slit at other end

Neg. No.

A v 8

Dimensions: A: Length: 10.5; width: 2.0.
(in cm.) B: Length: 26.0; width: 2.5.

Acc.

3017

Collection: Purchased from Mr. David Spain
13 August 1968.

221 563. A-B.

