

170333

A, B, C

Field No.

Provenience: Ila da Bananal, Rio Araguaya, Brazil

People or Culture: Caraja

Object: Man's headdress (see sketch at back)

Material: Feathers, woody grass, straw, gum, tree cotton.

Description: A horse-shoe-shaped frame (A) of double layers of woody grass strips twined together, holding diadem of layers of feathers. The outer layer (B) is made of short black cut feathers and the second layer (C) of pink feathers, tipped with tree-cotton covered reeds ending in small, yellow feathers held by black

Neg. No.

Dimensions: <sup>Three</sup> blue feathers are sandwiched by the pink (in cm.) feathers. A strap made of straw is attached
Height - 68.0 (max.) Width - 110.0 (max.) to frame.

(A) L-22, W-16 (B) L-4 (C) 47 (average length)

Collection: Presented by Mr. Clayton Templeton, 10 June 1963. Collected by donor, 1961.

Acc.

2801

