

A

CHICAGO NATURAL HISTORY MUSEUM—ETHNOLOGY

16-9

170340

Field No.

Provenience: Ila da Bananal, Rio Araguaya, Brazil

People or Culture: Caraja'

Object: Woman's skirt

Material: Bark cloth, feathers, grass, wood

Description: A trapezoidal bark cloth strip with painted black geometric design. Blue, red, yellow, and pink feathers attached to a strip of wood are bordering the 2 sides of the cloth. At the top, 2 grass cords. Some of the feathers missing.

Neg. No.

Dimensions:
(in cm.)

68 long 20.5 at widest pt

Acc.

2801

Collection: Presented by Mr. Clayton Templeton,
10 June 1963. Collected by donor, 1961.

