

A

CHICAGO NATURAL HISTORY MUSEUM—ETHNOLOGY

16-9

170341

Field No.

Provenience: Ila da Bananal, Rio Araguaya, Brazil

People or Culture: Carajá

Object: Woman's skirt

Material: Bark cloth, feathers, grass

Description: A trapezoidal bark cloth strip with painted black geometric design. Blue, red, and yellow feathers attached to the bottom portion of the cloth; at the top, 2 grass cords.

Neg. No.

Dimensions:
(in cm.)

72.5 long about 17.5 wide

Acc.

2801

Collection: Presented by Mr. Clayton Templeton,
10 June 1963. Collected by donor, 1961.

