

ENT A

190877

Field No.

Neg. No.

Acc.

3133

FIELD MUSEUM OF NATURAL HISTORY—ETHNOLOGY

16-6

Provenience: Mato Grosso, Brazil, Aldeia Camararé,
Rio Camararé

People or Culture: Nambiquara Indians, n̄yahlósú band

Object: headpiece

Material: split cane and toucano feathers

Description: The foundation is made of two rings of braided split cane, between which has been placed a cotton string upon which are bound red and yellow toucano feathers, in such a way that they project horizontally from between the two rings. This is the kind of headpiece which is used in the Girls' Puberty Festival.

Dimensions: id: ca. 15.5; od: ca. 25
(in cm.)

Collection: P. David Price, collector, 1968-1969

REC'D JUL 8 1970

