

A

CHICAGO NATURAL HISTORY MUSEUM—ETHNOLOGY

16-9

241881

Provenience: Santa Isabel, Ilha do Bananal
Rio Araguaia, Goias, Brasil

ENT

Field No.

People or Culture: Karaja

Object: Girls "pubic" skirt

18

Material: Native cotton, dyed with carbonized vegetable dye.

Description: These pubic skirts are worn by very little girls. The skirt is a bundle of twisted thread, the color is black. At opposite ends of the skirt, it is a circle, there is tightly bound thread with loose strands.

Neg. No.

Dimensions: Max. length 70 cm
(in cm.)

Collection: Borys Malkin -- purchased

Acc.

2624

