

A ENT
243728

CHICAGO NATURAL HISTORY MUSEUM—ETHNOLOGY

16-9

Field No.

Provenience: Casa de Julian, a Maquiritare village on the Upper Cunucunuma River,

People or Culture: Venezuela.

Object: Maquiritare
Woman's beaded public apron.

Description:

Trapezoid shape, overall beading of blue and white beads, and fringe on lower border. Fastened by double string on each end of the top edge. Design mostly white. Worn during ceremonies and festivals

Neg. No.

Dimensions:

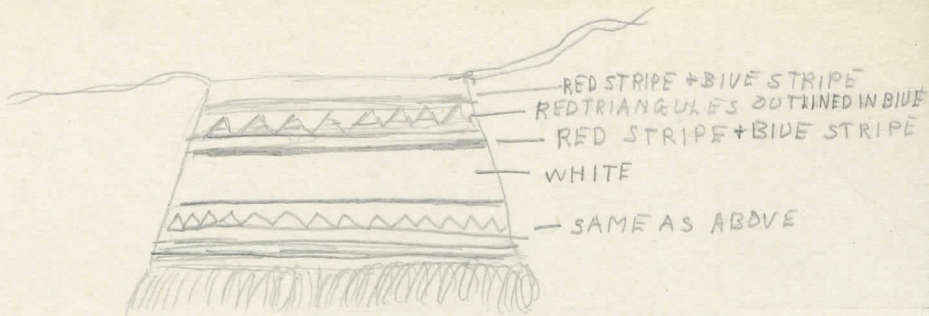

~~(in cm.)~~ Maximum length 15 ins.

Maximum width 9 ins.

Collection:

Collected by Paul H.
Nesbitt, 1950. Purchase.

Acc. 2460

RED STRIPE + BLUE STRIPE

RED TRIANGLES OUTLINED IN BLUE

RED STRIPE + BLUE STRIPE

WHITE

SAME AS ABOVE