

A ENT
243729

CHICAGO NATURAL HISTORY MUSEUM—ETHNOLOGY

16-9

Field No.

Provenience: Casa de Julian, a Maquiritare village on the Upper Cunucunuma River,

People or Culture: Venezuela

Object: Maquiritare
Girl's beaded apron. (public)

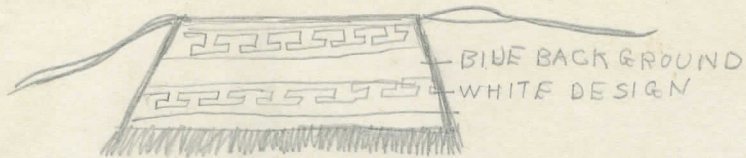

Description: Trapezoid shape, overall beading of blue and white beads, and fringe on lower border. Fastened by double string at each side of the top edge. Worn during ceremonies and festivals.

Neg. No.

Dimensions:
(in cm.) Maximum length 12 ins.
Maximum width 6 ins.

Collection: Collected by Paul H. Nesbitt, 1950. Purchase.

Acc. 2460

— BLUE BACKGROUND

— WHITE DESIGN