

A ENT CHICAGO NATURAL HISTORY MUSEUM—ETHNOLOGY 16-17
155087

Field No.

257

Provenience: BOLIVIA , Rio Benicito, Beni Province

People or Culture: Chacobo

Rm 35

Object: Fishing Arrow

Material: Rush (possibly a juncus), chonta palm, metal

Description: A fishing arrow with a single barb metal tip (bent nail) bound with string to a chonta palm point which is secured with string and black gum to the rush shaft. Nock bound with string. Made by men. Sketch reverse side.

This specimen probably shown in Neg. 98453.

Dimensions:

(in cm.)

185 cm. long;

1.5 cm., diameter.

Neg. No.

*shown in
neg. 98453*

Collection: purchased from Borys Malkin, collector
6 October 1961 Collected 1960.

Acc. 2749

