

155240

Field No.

251

Provenience: BRAZIL, Tapirapé, Rio Araguaia

PR3

People or Culture: Carajá

Object: Fishing arrow

Material: Woody grass, wood, bone, feathers, string, fiber.

Description: Shaft of woody grass with nodes, Wood fore-shaft with gum and string bound bone tip, inserted in shaft wrapped with dark brown fiber. Nock cut in shaft and string bound. Straight black feathers attached with string, some of which is green and wraps small feathers, a green and a red, against the shaft.

Neg. No.

Dimensions: Beyond the feathering shaft wrapped in brown fiber. Made by men. Sketch (in cm.)

length - 184.5

reverse side.

Collection: purchased from Borys Malkin, collector

6 October 1961

Collected 1960-61.

Acc. 2749

