

155244

Provenience: BRAZIL, Mato Verde, Rio Araguaia

PR3

Field No.

255

People or Culture: Carajá

Object: Fishing arrow

Material: Woody grass, chonta palm, bone, feathers, string, fiber

Description: Shaft of woody grass with nodes. Chonta palm foreshaft with string and gum bound bone tip and barb, inserted in shaft and secured with dark brown fiber. Nock cut in shaft and string bound. Straight feathering, one pink, one brown striped, attached with string, part of which attaches small feathers, Dimensions: a pink and a blue, to the shaft. Beyond (in cm.) feathering 2 sections of shaft wrapped in brown fiber. Made by men. Sketch.

length 96

Neg. No.

Collection: purchased from Borys Malkin, collector
6 October 1961 Collected 1960-61.

Acc. 2749

