

ENT^A 190851

FIELD MUSEUM OF NATURAL HISTORY—ETHNOLOGY

16-12

Field No.

Provenience: Mato Grosso, Brazil, Aldeia Camararé,
Rio Camararé

People or Culture: Nambiquara Indians, kithauhlú band

Object: gourd bowl; size appropriate for drinking from

Material: gourd

Neg. No.

Description: A small gourd, sectioned on a plane which passes through the apex right next to the stem, but which passes through the blossom end about 3 cm from the blossom scar; the larger of the two sections described by the intersection of this plane being blackened internally and retained as a bowl. A design has been burned on the exterior, and a string attached at the base of the neck of the gourd.

Dimensions: 16.3 X 12.4 X 9.4
(in cm.)

Acc. 3133

Collection: P. David Price, collector, 1968-1969

REC'D JUL 8 1970

Cat. # 190851.