

ENT
A

FIELD MUSEUM OF NATURAL HISTORY—ETHNOLOGY

16-12

190853

Provenience: Mato Grosso, Brazil, Aldeia Camararé,
Rio Camararé

Field No.

People or Culture: Nambiquara Indians, kithauhlú band

Object: large gourd for squeezing manioc juice

Material: gourd

Description: A large gourd, sectioned on a plane which passes through the apex right next to the stem, but which passes through the blossom end about 7 cm from the blossom scar; the larger of the two sections described by the intersection of this plane being blackened internally and retained as a bowl.

Neg. No.

50

Dimensions: 33 X 31.1 X 20.7
(in cm.)

3133
Acc.

Collection: P. David Price, collector, 1968-1969

REC'D JUL 8 1970

Cat. # 190 853.