

ENT

A

FIELD MUSEUM OF NATURAL HISTORY—ETHNOLOGY

34-15

257293

Provenience: Basilan Island, Sulu Archipelago
Philippines

Field No.

People or Culture: Filipino (?)

Object: Woven Fabric

Material: Cotton (?)

Description: Yakan textile used for women's dress trousers (women did not wear skirts); material striped predominantly in green, yellow, black and white. Thread imported but woven locally on back-strap loom. This type fabric becoming scarce.

Neg. No.

94

Dimensions:
(in cm.)

Acc.

3341

Collection: Gift from Dr Alex Spoehr on 1-15-1973

2571293