

A

FIELD MUSEUM OF NATURAL HISTORY—ETHNOLOGY

2233

240391

Provenience: Nigeria

Field No.

People or Culture:

Object: textile

Material: camel hair

Description: This camel hair blanket is woven in twelve sections then tacked together with cotton thread. It is weft faced with some hand manipulated patterning. The warp is off-white cotton and cannot be seen except in the damaged areas. The weft is mostly off-white with some browns. This piece is extremely damaged.

Neg. No.

Dimensions: length 228cm x width 118cm
(in cm.)

Acc. 3269

Collection: Diana Cohen 1975

TOUREG BLANKET from Kano, Zinder and on up into the desert in Niger. Woven of camel hair by men
Natural dyes