

A ENT
210596

CHICAGO NATURAL HISTORY MUSEUM—ETHNOLOGY 22-37

Field No.

Provenience: Nigeria (near Onitsha)
People or Culture: Ogrubu (Ibo) Wm. Fagg
Object: woman's anklet
Material: brass

Neg. No.

Description:
circular brass anklet with cylinder protruding above and below circular plate; incised design; opening extends through cylinder and plate. Anklet worn in pair.
pair to # 210597 see reverse side

Acc. 2820

Dimensions: height - 14; diameter - 38.4 (in cm.)
Collection: Fuller Collection: presented by Mrs. A. W. F. Fuller, 16 January 1964.

Fuller label - North Nigeria. An old and unusually large and heavy pair of woman's anklets of brass. Diam: 15 1/8 inches. Weight of pair 8 lbs.10 oz. Anambara tribe. These anklets are given to a bride by her father-in-law and fastened on after marriage as a hinderance to her running away. 13 May 1942

