

ENT A

221694

Field No.

Neg. No.

A70

Acc.

3080

CHICAGO NATURAL HISTORY MUSEUM—ETHNOLOGY 22-37

Provenience: Nigeria: northeastern region

People or Culture: "Kirdi" complex in the Adamawa Mts.
prob. the Gude people.

Object: anklet

Material: brass

Description: subcylindrical cuff flaring out upward;
open along one side; made by the lost-wax process its face decorated with horizontal strips bordered by an undulating vertical line; the edges decorated by a single vertical rank of concentric circles.Dimensions: Length: 14.5; diam: 9.2.
(in cm.)Collection: Purchased from Mrs. Susan Vogel
October 16, 1969.

