

FIELD MUSEUM OF NATURAL HISTORY--ETHNOLOGY

39-29

A 249158
Field No.  448	Provenience: Papua New Guinea, West Sepik Province, Aitape District, Serra , Sarai Village. People: Serra people Object: Arrow ( andrang moin ) Material: cane, wild buai, bush rope
Temp. No. Serra "S"	Description: Arrow for hunting fish. Tiktik shaft of ( turyong ). Arrow has six points of wild buai ( tana ) with no barbs; attached to shaft with a paspas of bush rope ( nim ). Sold as a set with Nos. 442-448.
Neg. No.	Made by Anton Anta, Mainropong clan, sold by son Domnic Maintau. Dimensions: l.=174.4 cm; w.(shaft) = 1.0 cm; w.(head) = 3.3 cm Collected by Robert L. Welsch, John Terrell, & Wilfred Oltomo
Acc. 3899	Collection: A. B. Lewis Project Expedition, 1993-1994