

A 249798	FIELD MUSEUM OF NATURAL HISTORY--ETHNOLOGY 39-29
Field No. 1677 Temp. No. L-22c	Provenience: Papua New Guinea, West Sepik Province, Aitape District, Lemieng, Vrinyagol (Big Lemieng). People: Lemieng (Walman) people Object: Arrow (kEtapu) Material: cane, iron, nylon, plastic Description: Long arrow with cane shaft and barbed iron point. (kEtapu) refers to arrows with barbs. Cane is (kang kang). Shaft singed in places and has a design consisting of small incised flecks. Iron point has single barb. Junction of shaft and point covered in some kind of plastic then wrapped with blue nylon string. Made and sold by Lambert Wekap.
Neg. No.	Dimensions: l. = 161 cm; diam. = 1.3 cm (Collected by Robert L. Welsch & Wilfred Oltomo)
Acc. 3899	Collection: A. B. Lewis Project Exped. 1993-94

DHC