

A ENT

CHICAGO NATURAL HISTORY MUSEUM—ETHNOLOGY

16-23

242535

Field No.

252

Provenience: PERU Colonia Calleria, Rio Calleria

People or Culture: Shipibo

Object: arrow

Material: Woody grass, chonta palm, feather, cotton string

Description: Chonta palm point, barbed on one edge, inserted into the hollowed end of woody grass shaft and secured with gummed cotton string. Onnock end is a pair of split black feathers secured to the woody grass with a twisted cotton string.

Neg. No.

(Sketch on back)

Dimensions:
(in cm.)

diam: 1.2 length: 154.5

Acc. 2771

Collection: Purchased in 1962 from Borys Malkin, who made collection in 1961.

Cat. # 242 535.