

A

ENT

CHICAGO NATURAL HISTORY MUSEUM—ETHNOLOGY

16-29

243677

Field No.

Provenience: Culebra, Cunucunuma R.,
Upper Orinoco, Venezuela
People or Culture: Maquiritare

Object:

Spear

Description: Spear point made from a discarded machete. Used for killing small land animals and alligators. Thrust underhand, not thrown Spear point is bound on with wire and the shaft is very crooked.

Neg. No.

Dimensions:

~~(in cm.)~~

10 ft. long.

Collection: Collected by Paul H.
Nesbitt, 1950. Purchase.

Acc. 2460

