

A

FIELD MUSEUM OF NATURAL HISTORY—ETHNOLOGY

110-24

259520

Provenience: South America, probably YaguaField No.*People or Culture: tropical forestObject: blow gun dart quiverMaterial: palm splints and cotton

Description: Very fine palm splints tightly bound together and overlapping to form a tapering, fan-like quiver. Netted bag, with beige and dark brown horizontal stripes, filled with kapoc. Two small fish jaws attached to neck of bag loop, which is attached to the quiver.

Neg. No.

Dimensions: Quiver 26cm long, 22cm circumference,
(in cm.) Bag 10cm by 10cm

Acc. 3483

Collection: