

242331

Provenience: PERU , Rio Ampiyacu

Field No.
22

People or Culture: Witoto

Object: Spring trap for fish

Material: Wicker

Description: Conical wide mesh trap open at base end of cone. Consists of several gray-brown strips of wood woven with what is probably creeper line. Four adjacent slants have been evenly shortened producing a squarish dip in the rim. Also a length of creeper resembling a handle. Made and used by men. Sketch reverse side.

Neg. No.

Dimensions: maximum diameter 33
(in cm.) maximum height 71.5

Acc. 2771

Collection: Purchased in 1962 from Borys Malkin, who made collection in 1961.

