

180419

Country Brazil
 Locality Tapajós River (South Amazon basin)
 People Pavintinkins (?) Turpi Stock

Name Necklace of bone + tucuman beads

The bone-beads and the tucuman beads are placed alternately - and end to end - the bones are small, thin + light probably cut from a bird, the tucuman beads are derived of course from the tucuman palm. At the each end of the string is

Collection Goteborg Museum Exchange

(Baron Erland Nordenskiöld, Coll.)

Notes a large snail shell - polished. Above the snail the string is tied together forming a real necklace.
from snail to snail

Width

Length) 58 c. m. Height

Price

Acc. 1706