

ENT
A

190782

Field No.

FIELD MUSEUM OF NATURAL HISTORY—ETHNOLOGY

16-34

Provenience: Mato Grosso, Brazil, Aldeia Camararé,
Rio CamararéPeople or Culture: Nambiquara Indians, kithauhlú bandObject: combMaterial: cane, cotton stringDescription: A short piece of cane has been split, and a row of sharpened splinters of cane have been set into it. The ends of the piece of cane have been wound, and the splinters have been individually bound in with cotton string.

Neg. No.

49

Dimensions: 14.5 x 12
(in cm.)

Acc.

3133

Collection: P. David Price, collector, 1968-1969

REC'D JUL 8 1970

