

AGENT

CHICAGO NATURAL HISTORY MUSEUM—ETHNOLOGY

16-34

242401

Provenience: PERU , Colonia Galleria, Rio GalleriaField No.

92

People or Culture: Ishkonahua (Remo)Object: CombMaterial: Chonta palm, beeswax, stringDescription: Five spikes of chonta radiate from a glob of black beeswax and are held firm with string weaving and a small crossbar of chonta. Made by men. Sketch reverse side.Neg. No.*Dimensions: length: 26.9
(in cm.) max. width: 4.9

Acc. 2771

Collection: Purchased in 1962 from Borys Malkin, who made collection in 1961.

