

ENT
242505

CHICAGO NATURAL HISTORY MUSEUM—ETHNOLOGY

16-34

Field No.

224

Provenience: PERU , Colonia Calleria, Rio Calleria

People or Culture: Shipibo

Object: Men's breast plate

Material: Beads, metal

Description: Solid beadwork square with beadwork tabs at upper corners. Geometric design of black, red, yellow, green and clear on white field. 2 rows of metal (possibly brass) "fringe" at bottom consisting of convex circular disks on a bead string.

Neg. No.

Made by women for use of men. Sketch reverse side.

Dimensions:
(in cm.)

31.0 x 15.7

Acc. 2771

Collection: Purchased in 1962 from Borys Malkin, who made collection in 1961.

