

16-34

243725

Provenience: Casa de Julian, a Maquiritare village on the Upper Cunucunuma River, Venezuela.

Field No.

People or Culture:

Maquiritare

Object:

Two Arm Bands

Description:

Light tan, tightly plaited arm bands about $\frac{1}{2}$ inch wide. Red cords used for fastening. Usually made of cotton or pineapple fiber. Worn by men and women in all Maquiritare villages visited. Produces abnormally bulging muscles.

Neg. No.

Dimensions:

(in cm.) 19 cms: long (tan fabric)
 $1\frac{1}{2}$ cms. wide.

Collection:

Collected by Paul H. Nesbitt, 1950. Purchase.

Acc. 2460

