

170356

Field No.

Provenience: Ila da Bananal, Rio Araguaya, BrazilPeople or Culture: CarajaObject: wooden dollMaterial: Wood, bark cloth, feathers, straw, gum
A standing, carved, wooden, female doll.Description: It has long hair topped by a cluster of feathers. It has body painting on the face, the upper arm, area around the nipples, thighs and legs. It wears a breech cloth of bark, a dark-brown neckband, feather ear ornaments, armllets of straw around the elbow and strand of cotton string representing glassDimensions: beads hang around the neck.
(in cm.)

(Sketch at back)

H-25.6

Neg. No.

Acc.

2801

Collection: Presented by Mr. Clayton Templeton,
10 June 1963. Collected by donor, 1961.

