

A 241893

CHICAGO NATURAL HISTORY MUSEUM—ETHNOLOGY 16-37

Field No.

8

Provenience: Santa Isabel, Ilha do Bananal
Rio Araguaia, Goias, Brasil

People or Culture: Kara ja

Object: Rasp used for polishing wood.

Material: Glos^so-hyal^{bone} of the hyoid ^{arch}~~bone~~ of the pirarucu fish (Arapaima gigas)

Description: Long narrow bone, with one surface smooth and the other very rough but worn.
The rough side looks as though it were full of tiny little teeth conical in shape.

Neg. No.

Dimensions: Length, 16.5 Width 3.9
(in cm.)

Collection: Borys Malkin -- purchased

Acc.

2624

little teeth all over