

A

CHICAGO NATURAL HISTORY MUSEUM—ETHNOLOGY

16-41

241904-

sub. 1-2

Field No.

70,71

Neg. No.

Provenience: Santa Isabel, Ilha do Bananal
Rio Araguaia, Goias, Brasil

People or Culture: Karaja

Object: 2 "aruana" dolls

Material: wood stake, paper, bees-wax, feathers grass dried

Description: ~~Miniature copy~~ of ceremonial mask, made by adolescent or young man in the men's house, made in pairs. Some of the models are not to be seen by females. Red and white paper rings circle top area, black and white feathers on top held by bees-wax

Dimensions: length 29
(in cm.)

Collection: Borys Malkin -- purchased

Acc.

2624

ENT

BOTH PIECES ALMOST IDENTICAL

