

A

241928

CHICAGO NATURAL HISTORY MUSEUM—ETHNOLOGY 16-37

Field No.

1

Provenience: Santa Isabel, Ilha do Bananal,
Rio Araguaia, Goias, Brasil

People or Culture: Karaja

Object: clay sifter

Material: palm leaf, fiber twine

Description: clay sifter used by women in the sifting of clay for pottery. Made by male.
Strips of palm leaf bound together with twine which is tied at four lines perpendicular to the leaf

Neg. No.

Dimensions: length 70, width 39
(in cm.)

Collection:

Acc.

2624

Borys Malkin -- purchased

