

252725

Provenience: Eastern Highlands; New Guinea

Field No.

People or Culture: TaydoraObject: Black seed beads strung as for a necklace or beltMaterial: Seeds

Description: several small yellow opaque glass beads are interspersed occasionally. The cords upon which the beads are strung are drawn through a section of tubular bone about three inches long. There are about 18 strands of beads involved and some small red glass

Neg. No.

Dimensions: Length: 52 cm. beads also.
(in cm.)

Collection: Collected by James B. Watson, 1954-55
Purchased, 1956

Acc. 2575