

FIVE-COLOR PORCELAIN PLATE

The term "five colors" (wu ts'ai) denotes any polychrome ware decorated with colored enamels fired in the muffle or small furnace. The principal decoration of this plate is formed by chrysanthemums with foliage.

MING PERIOD

119153