

A

ENT

CHICAGO NATURAL HISTORY MUSEUM—ETHNOLOGY

44-9

253079

Provenience: Eastern Highlands; New Guinea

Field No.

People or Culture: Taydora

Object: sample of bark skirt

Material: inner bark and twisted cord

Description: Small number of bark strips doubled over a cord and bound into a loop to allow the cord to hold them. Sample of method of manufacture and materials used in women's skirts.

Neg. No.

Dimensions:
(in cm.)

Collection: Collected by James B. Watson, 1954-55
Purchased, 1956

Acc. 2575