

HILL JAR

Coated with a green glaze, much decomposed, also in the interior. The cover is modeled into hills surrounded by waves, symbolizing the Isles of the Blest. Human figures, wild goats, and other animals are represented in relief. The body of the vessel is decorated with two tiger-heads holding rings.

HAN PERIOD

✓
118473
•