LOCATION:

Provenance: China (probably Honan province: Hui hsien)

People: Chinese

Description:

Figurine of a horse made of solid pottery of dark brown color. It is short, chunky and stiff, and the modeling is simple. A bridle, the nostrils and the ears are painted red. A small hole up into the belly may have taken a stick on which it was held while being modeled. The two left legs, back, and neck have been broken and repaired.
