

A

FIELD MUSEUM OF NATURAL HISTORY

54A-1/02

235863

Provenance: China (probably Honan province:
Hui hsien)

ENT

LOCATION:

People: Chinese

Hall

Case

Room

Description:

Figurine of a woman of solid, dark brown pottery. She stands with hands clasped over stomach and chin thrust forward in a gossipy pose. She wears a peaked hat, a long dress with belt and vertical stripes on the skirt, and a large collar (?). Red pigment and traces of white. Believed to date from 4th century B. C.

Field No.

Neg. No.

90874-6

INDEX GUIDES

1.

2.

3.

4.

5.

6.

7.

Collection: Museum purchase; credit to
Blackstone Expedition to China

Dim.: 5.9 cm. high

Acc:

2316