

BRONZE KETTLE

The three feet are in the form of horse's hoofs. Decorated with ornamental tiger-heads holding movable rings to which are attached two chain links on each side. These are connected by a horizontal handle. The ends of the latter terminate in dragon's heads.

Excavated in the prefecture of Ho-nan
HAN PERIOD

117437