

TWO-EDGED BRONZE SWORD

Decorated with the figure of a tiger. The stripes marked on the blade in black lacquer are intended to represent the stripes of the tiger. This sword was therefore believed to be imbued with the tiger's strength and prowess.

CHOU PERIOD

BLACKSTONE EXPEDITION TO CHINA, 1908-10

116755