

243693

Field No.

Provenience: Culebra, Cunucunuma R.,
Upper Orinoco, Venezuela
People or Culture: Maquiritare

Object: Flute

Description: Flute made of cerbatana bamboo. Five holes about $1\frac{1}{2}$ inches apart near one end. One hole opposite the hole nearest the middle of the flute in the series of five. Triangular opening at the other end used for mouthpiece. Below the end where the five openings are, a diamond shaped ornamentation has been carved from

Dimensions: the node.~~(in cm.)~~

19.75 ins. long.

Neg. No.

Collection: Collected by Paul H. Nesbitt, 1950. Purchase.

Acc. 2460

