

243692

Field No.

Provenience: Culebra, Cunucunuma R.,
Upper Orinoco, Venezuela

People or Culture: Maquiritare

Object:

Flute

Description:

Flute made of cerbatana bamboo.
Five holes about an inch apart at one end.
Triangular opening at the other used for mouthpiece. One hole opposite the hole nearest the middle of the flute in the series of five. Below the end where the five openings are a diamond shaped ornamentation has been

Dimensions: carved from the node.

~~(in cm.)~~

17½ ins. long.

Neg. No.

Collection: Collected by Paul H,
Nesbitt, 1950. Purchase.

Acc. 2460

THERE IS ANOTHER HOLE
ON THE OTHER SIDE, OPPOSITE
THIS ONE

